Prayer of the Week

Dear Lord, I hear Your call to "Come, follow me, and to renounce my possessions. Oh Lord, my spirit is willing, but the flesh is too often weak. Grant me the strength to put down the possessions and things that I don't need and pick up the cross that I have been given to carry. Grant me the vision to see the reward that awaits me if I bear my personal crosses with grace and humility. By doing so, I will be a true disciple. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.

The Cost of DISCIPLESHIP

Reflection: Do I consider my crosses to be burdens, or do I see them as opportunities to live as a disciple of Christ?

We pray for our students as they begin a new school year.

The gifts of Bread and Wine to be consecrated during the week of
have been donated in loving memory of Janina Charyton
by Wiesia Hermanowski & Family

Reflection: In today's Gospel, Jesus tells the crowd that only those who renounce all of their possessions can be His disciples. Is He truly asking us to give up everything? Perhaps instead He is trying to help us to see that everything we think we own is really a gift from God. Let us pray that as humble stewards, we accept the challenge to put God first in our time and resources, our attitudes and priorities, and our talents and strengths.

The Saint Ladislaus Holy Rosary Society will have a meeting on Sunday, September 18, after the 9:30 AM Mass. Present members and new members are always welcome. Please join us in the rectory meeting room.

On this holiday, it might be a good idea to reflect on the significance of labor in our lives. Hopefully our consideration of the work that we do will lead to a realization that labor is a gift. It is labor that enables us to use our talents for the good of others. No matter how simple or difficult a job may be, someone always benefits from our work. Indeed, much of our identity comes from the work we do. We see ourselves as needed and purposeful because we serve those who rely on our knowledge and skills.

This Labor Day, take a moment to thank God for the gift of labor. Ask the Holy Spirit to guide all of your work-related decisions as you bring your Catholic ideals to the workplace. Pray for those who serve us by doing work for us. Always remember that no job is menial if it is done with humility for the glory of God.

Please pray for ...
the sick,
the vulnerable,
the homebound,
the homeless,
the persecuted,
the unborn, refugees,
victims of violence,
and all in need of
prayer.
