Pope Francis' Prayer Intention

for November: Children Who Suffer

We pray for children who are suffering, especially those who are homeless, orphans, and victims of war; may they be guaranteed access to education and the opportunity to experience family affection.

Prayer of the Week

Lord, my God and Almighty and merciful Lord, may Your Word be indelibly printed on our hearts and minds so that we remain true to You. Help us to live good and holy lives as a people drawn to goodness and repelled by evil. May we always look to You to "direct our hearts" as we make our way in a society in great need of Your guidance. In this bustling, noisy world, inspire us to seek the peace and quiet that will enable us to hear Your answers to our prayers. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

On this Stewardship Sunday, we are reminded that we serve both God and others. Especially in this month of Thanksgiving, we are mindful of the gifts that God has bestowed on us. It is a good time to ask ourselves, "How am I using my gifts to serve God and others?"

Today is...

Next Sunday's second collection is for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development and Home Missions. This collection supports programs to empower the millions of people in our country who live in poverty. Many of these people do not have stable housing. At a time of year when we give thanks, let us remember those who don't have what we do. Please join us in this effort to help these people break out of the cycle of poverty.

Two of the saints whom we commemorate this week were known for their genuine concern for the poor. Both Saint Elizabeth of Hungary and Saint Margaret of Scotland, who were both queens of countries, were committed to serving the underprivileged.

At the end of the day, many of us make sure that we recharge our electronic devices so as to guarantee our ability to communicate the next day. Speaking of the need to communicate, we also need to ask ourselves...

 TALKED TO GOD
 TODAY?
