Gospel reflection: When Jesus heard about the illness of His friend Lazarus, He responded, “This illness is not to end in death; rather, it is for God’s glory, that through it the Son of God may be glorified.” Every aspect of our lives—gifts as well as sufferings—can, if surrendered to Christ, lead to blessings for ourselves and others.

Heavenly Father, as we await the glory of the resurrection of our Lord, I long to turn away from sin and live in the peaceful knowledge that I am serving You faithfully. May Your spirit find a pleasant dwelling place in me until that final day when my spirit is raised to a heavenly home with You. Through our Lord, Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.

Reflection:

Do I live as a person of hope who is aware that God’s Spirit lives within me?

Throughout these days, let us look forward to the joy that the Easter resurrection will bring!

Next Sunday:

Next week’s bulletin will contain the Holy Week Schedule of worship.

Confession + Absolution

In preparation for Easter, there will be opportunities for Confession in English and Polish on April 3, Monday of Holy Week. Confessions will be heard from 3PM to 5PM and from 6PM to 8PM.
