Today is Divine Mercy Sunday. In the year 2000, Faustina Kowalska was canonized. At the canonization Mass, Saint John Paul II, then Pope, announced that the Church would ever recognize the Second Sunday of Easter as Divine Mercy Sunday. Saint Faustina's life is a beautiful example of what it means to place complete trust in God and in His merciful love for every human being.

Prayer of the Week

Merciful and compassionate Father, as one who longs to be a fitting disciple, I call upon You to grant me the strength to share the gift of Your love with others. May your unconditional love for me inspire me to look past others' flaws and to use the power of forgiveness to make a change in my own little world and the world at large.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen,

Fr. Christopher Heller

Fr. Heller is originally from Syosset, and moved to Bay Shore in high school. He graduated from Chaminade High School in 2013 and then went to The Catholic University of America in Washington, DC, earning a bachelor's degree in philosophy and theology. During his time at Chaminade and CUA, he started to hear God's gentle call to parish priesthood as he grew in his faith. After graduating from college, he began the adventure of following that call and entered the seminary. In 2022, Fr. Heller was ordained a priest for the Diocese of Rockville Centre and currently serves as Associate Pastor at the Church of St. Dominic in Oyster Bay.

Gospel Today we hear the story of Doubting Thomas. Challenging times do happen in our lives and sometimes pull us away from our faith- and even trust- in God. Let us turn to Saint Thomas in prayer when we need to get through those rough patches. By reflecting on Saint Thomas, we can remove our doubt and enhance our faith so that, like Thomas, we can say, "My Lord and my God."

"We pledge to persevere in prayer, fasting and witnessing to the sacredness of every human life."
 - Bishop Barres' statement regarding the U.S. Supreme Court Decision in Dobbs v. Jackson, June 24, 2022
