"The right to care and treatment for all must always be prioritized, so that the weakest, particularly the elderly and the sick, are never discarded. Indeed, life is a right, not death, which must be welcomed, not administered."

Pope Francis's prayer intention for October For the Synod:
We pray for the Church, that she may adopt listening and dialogue as a lifestyle at every level, and allow herself to be guided by the Holy Spirit towards the peripheries of the world.

*October is dedicated to the holy Rosary. During this month, we pray a decade of the Rosary after Sunday Masses. How wonderful it would be if everyone made time each day to pray even one decade of the rosary!

Yes, God has chosen us to be his stewards, to go into the world and bring comfort to those in need. This weekend we have an opportunity to act as generous stewards as we acknowledge
World Mission Sunday.
Know that our contributions can transform lives. As we approach Thanksgiving, we can provide a reason for others to be thankful by offering a donation that can help the impoverished receive basic needs. Your money supports mission dioceses around the world where priests, religious, and lay people serve the most vulnerable communities. Today's Gospel acclamation bids us to "Shine like lights in the world."!
Today is a day for us to shine!

"Authentic witness to the sacredness of life, walks only in the light. Light does not push or pull—it draws in, it attracts. We radiate the Light of Christ in our joy, our hope, our love and our mercy."

The Saints...Seekers of Holiness

The two saints whom we commemorate this Friday, October 28, Saint Jude Thaddeus and Saint Simon the Zealot, were chosen by Jesus to be Apostles. They both remained faithful to Jesus their whole lives, exemplifying piety, humility, and obedience. Both traveled and preached the Gospel. Both were martyrs. Saint Jude is the patron saint of hopeless cases, causes, and situations. Statues of Saint Jude have a small flame over his head, which is thought to represent the Holy Spirit. Saint Simon was known for his strict adherence to the Jewish teachings and laws, thus the description as a zealot. Not much is known about him. He is the patron saint of woodcutters, leather workers, and tanners.
