Pope Francis's prayer intention for November ~We pray for the Holy Father; as he fulfills his mission, may he continue to accompany the flock entrusted to him, with the help of the Holy Spirit.

A theme of today's Gospel is awareness of our gifts.

Almighty and ever-living God, how grateful I am for the gifts and talents that You have given me! I pray for the insight and wisdom to know how best I can use those gifts to serve You and others. Strengthen me to turn away from any selfish tendencies as I choose to give more generously of my time and talents. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever.

Reflection question: Do I recognize God as the giver of all my gifts and talents? Do I take time to appraise these talents and reflect upon how I may use them fully to help others in my family, in my workplace, in my parish?

What a beautiful holiday! Rather than gift-giving, we concentrate on giving thanks.

Many traditions accompany this day. People gather in kinship or friendship and celebrate their togetherness, their sense of belonging. For one day, they overlook any differences or problems and recognize the shared blessings that make life's challenges seem smaller and life's joys seem greater. Silently or openly they express the people and circumstances for which they are grateful. They sit down to a meal and give thanks to God for the gift of food, fellowship, and faith. Perhaps some of these traditions will be carried over to other meals throughout the year.

Father Piotr Rozek & Father Robert Wolosik wish our parishioners a holy, happy, and healthy Thanksgiving.

Good stewards are like the industrious and reliable servants in today's Gospel, prudently using and multiplying the gifts entrusted to them by God. As dedicated stewards, we work to cultivate ways that enable us to love God and serve our neighbor.

Collection Amount
November 12: $1,735

CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL

Last week we were fortunate to add four more donors, lifting our number to 42. Because of these latest contributions, we have raised $10,355, which is 75.58% of our $13,700 goal. Please consider making a donation in any amount. Bear in mind that this is a parish effort.
