The theme of today's Gospel is vigilance as we wait for the coming of the Lord.

Keep watch ... you do not know when the owner of the house will come back - whether in the evening, or at midnight, or when the rooster crows, or at dawn.

M a r k 1 3 : 3 5

We pray: Almighty ever-living God, as we wait in joyful expectation for the birth of Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, help us to open our hearts in love to our neighbor. Strengthen our efforts to be blameless in holiness so that we please You, O merciful Father. Open our eyes to Your ways, thereby empowering us to be vigilant always and wary of anything that might corrupt our holiness. Through our Lord, Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever.

Pope Francis' Prayer Intention for December:

For Persons with Disabilities

We pray that people living with disabilities may be at the center of attention in society, and that institutions may offer inclusive programs that value their active participation.

We are the servants of God, each with his or her own task. We will be judged good stewards if, at His coming, He finds us ready, conscientiously accomplishing the tasks to which we have been called. Let us pray that as vigilant stewards of God's gifts, we seek to follow Jesus by sharing our gifts among the many during Advent.

Friday, December 8: Holy Day of Obligation
Mass at 8AM (Eng.) 7:30PM (Pol.)

"Virgin most pure, conceived without original sin, Mary, pray for us."
 - St. John Henry Newman

2024 Church calendars in Polish/English are now available for your taking. As there is a limited number, you are asked to take only one at this time. Thank you for your cooperation. The traditional oplatek Christmas wafers will be available in the near future.

The first candle on the Advent wreath represents the light of hope. It is in Jesus that we place our hope. He is the Savior who remains among us. We invite Him to our celebrations and give him the gift of our best selves.

"Given for you."

The Gifts of Bread and Wine for the week beginning December 3rd have been offered by Frank and Marion Wilburn in loving memory of +Frank C. Wilburn, Jr.
