Pope Francis' Prayer Intentions:

January: For the gift of diversity in the Church: Let us pray that the Holy Spirit helps us recognize the gift of different charisms within the Christian community, and to discover the richness of different ritual traditions in the heart of the Catholic Church.

February: For the terminally ill: Let us pray that the sick who are in the final stages of life receive the necessary medical and human care and accompaniment.

*"Three things are necessary for the salvation of man:
to know what he ought to believe,
to know what he ought to desire,
and to know what he ought to do."*

TODAY'S GOSPEL

The people were amazed at his teaching, because he taught them as
one who had authority.

Mark 1:22

This coming Friday, February 2nd, we will celebrate the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord. Mary and Joseph took Jesus to the temple at Jerusalem forty days after the birth of the Christ Child. This feast is also known as Candlemas. Pope Francis reminds us: "We too are called to welcome Jesus, Who comes to meet us...to encounter Him: the God of Life is to be encountered every day of our lives~ not now and then, but every day. To follow Jesus is not a decision taken once and for all: it is a daily choice."

February 2nd is also the World Day for Consecrated Life as declared by Pope Saint John Paul II. We pray for those men and women whose lives reflect a total dedication to God. Pope Francis refers to the "life-changing encounter with the Lord" that those consecrated have experienced. This day is also a reminder to pray for an increase in religious vocations. We pray that more men and women answer the call to the consecrated life.

I hope to reintroduce our "Prayers for the Sick" list in the weekly bulletin. Names to be included are to be submitted by the individual himself or herself or by an immediate family member. Names will remain on the list for six weeks. Send the prayer requests to: joan@stladislauschurch.com or call the office during open hours.

Please be Praying for...
Father Piotr Rozek

In anxious times, am I a light to others? Do I shine the light of Christ's peace on others by radiating hope and calm?

ANNUAL CONTRIBUTION STATEMENTS

Please call the rectory office if you want a statement of your 2024 donations.

Today begins Catholic Schools Week.

We pray for the success of these institutions of learning, where in addition to acquiring knowledge, our children grow in our precious Catholic faith. Come, visit our schools!

Visit the website to learn the dates and times of the Open House events at the individual schools.

The recent collection amounts were not available at the time when the bulletin was due to be submitted. The amounts will be published when they become available. Your patience is appreciated. * Today's second collection will be for the Church in Need. Your donations will help the churches in Central and Eastern Europe, Latin America, and Africa. Please give what your means allow.

Scripture reflection: Saint Paul's letter to the Corinthians begins with his desire that people be free of anxieties. Yes, even in early times, anxiety was an obstacle to gaining inner peace. Many of us experience anxiety because of the uncertainty of what our future holds. We worry over that which we cannot control. This is when we should cling to the words "Let go; Let God." May we, as disciples, talk to God in prayer, express our concerns, and place our faith in Him. After all, He loves us and knows our needs before we utter them.
