Prayer of the Week

Heavenly Father, I love You and long to keep Your Word all the days of my life. May Your Word find fertile ground in my heart and in my mind so that my mouth forever sings Your praise. Grant me the wisdom to turn to the Holy Spirit as my guide in all of the choices I make.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.

“How shall I make a return to the Lord for all the good He has done for me? (Psalm 116:12)

All parishioners are invited to embark on a spiritual journey as “One Family in Mission” that is called to evangelize here at Saint Ladislaus and on Long Island. We will accomplish this mission by using the pillars of stewardship: formation, prayer, hospitality, and service.

Stewardship is a grateful response of a Christian disciple who understands that all of the talents and strengths one has are a gift from God. Because of our love for God and a desire to be closer to Him, we understand that these abilities are to be shared with others. A Catholic steward has gratitude, accountability, generosity, and a willingness to return God’s gifts with increase.. By using these gifts, we also strengthen our family, parish, and community life; it is our path to holiness.

All parishioners are encouraged to go deeper into their faith and consciously examine their God-given talents. “I invite all Christians everywhere, at this very moment, to a renewed personal encounter with Jesus Christ, or at least openness to letting Him encounter them.” Pope Francis

Each week for the next four weeks, we will reflect on a pillar of stewardship and put each pillar into action. By week four, we will take a commitment to service. The commitment may be to a ministry, our family, or a commitment to prayer.

The First Pillar of Christian Stewardship: Hospitality ~

“Above all, let your love for one another be intense, because love covers a multitude of sins. Be hospitable to one another without complaining.”

Next weekend a collection for the Catholic Communications will be taken. This campaign connects people with Christ, here and around the world in developing countries through the internet, television, radio and print media. Help spread the Gospel message!

May our Merciful Lord grant them healing.

Reflection: Do we have a welcoming attitude when it comes to Church? Perhaps we have never thought of ourselves as evangelists. Let us remember that it was a call that brought forth the first disciples. How did St. Peter learn of Jesus? His brother, St. Andrew, brought him to the Messiah. Our Lord even speaks of hospitality when He is in the house of the Pharisee. Read Luke 7:36-50. It is the sinful woman who shows love and hospitality to Jesus, not the Pharisee whose house it is. Living Stewardship: Let’s not forget hospitality when we are in church. Is your overall manner welcoming to the person sitting next to you? Do you remember to hold the door open to the elderly couple walking slowly behind you as you enter the church? Finally, upon leaving the church, do you manifest a spirit of peace by showing courtesy to other drivers exiting the parking lot?

On Monday we celebrate Memorial Day. This civil holiday recalls the countless men and women who have given their lives in the service of our nation and in the service of justice, freedom, and peace. We prayerfully remember these men and women who will forever stand as examples of placing not only their gifts, but their very lives at the service of the human family.
