Prayer of the Week

Most loving Father, as one Baptized in the Lord, I have received the responsibility of discipleship. I embrace this gift and long to do Your work of holiness. Grant me the grace and perseverance to proclaim the Good News through words and actions that speak of Your love. May I always be committed to loving others as I aim to create a holy city in my little corner of the world. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.

The lovely month of May, the month of Mary

St. Francis de Sales said,
"The greatest method of praying is to pray the Rosary."

We are most grateful to our parishioners Honorata Szkilondz and Bogdan Jarocki, who generously purchased and planted the colorful flowers that are flourishing in the various gardens on our church property. Our beautiful statue of the Blessed Mother will be surrounded with lovely blooms. How pleasant it is to approach our place of worship and to see the grounds alive with color! Our heartfelt thanks to our two faithful stewards, who definitely gave of their time, talent, and treasure to benefit our parish.

Open this Sunday~
10am-1pm

May our Merciful Lord grant them healing.

Reflection: Today's first reading speaks again of the evangelization of Paul and Barnabas. As stewards of faith, they traveled near and far to spread God's Word, encountering both violent rejection and joyful acceptance of the message that they preached. We need not sail to Antioch or Pisidia to be evangelists. Let us spread God's Word today by using our gifts in service to the wider community, beginning with our own hometown.

Living Stewardship: Jesus could not have been any more direct in this Gospel reading when He tells us to love one another. As simple as this sounds, this is no easy task. This week try to show more love and respect to those close to you, and ask God to help you love those who are not easy to love.

Let us pray that as loving stewards, we strive to choose wisely, act justly, and hold to what is best for the good of all.
