Today is Divine Mercy Sunday. In the year 2000, Faustina Kowalska was canonized. At the canonization Mass, Saint John Paul II, then Pope, announced that the Church would ever recognize the Second Sunday of Easter as Divine Mercy Sunday. Saint Faustina's life is a beautiful example of what it means to place complete trust in God and in His merciful love for every human being.

Prayer of the Week

Merciful and compassionate Father, as one who longs to be a fitting disciple, I call upon You to grant me the strength to share the gift of Your love with others. May Your unconditional love for me inspire me to look past others' flaws and to use the power of forgiveness to make a change in my own little world and the world at large. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.

Sincere thanks to all who contributed toward the Easter flowers that adorn our church so beautifully this season.

Flowers were offered in memory of ...

May our Merciful Lord grant them healing.

Reflection: Today we hear the story of Doubting Thomas. Challenging things do happen in our lives and sometimes pull us away from our faith— and even trust— in God.

Let us ask St. Thomas to pray for us to get through the tough patches in our lives. In doing so, our doubt can be diminished and our faith enhanced so that with St. Thomas we can say, “My Lord and my God. Living Stewardship: As Christian stewards, let us put the gift of faith to good use. Welcome this Divine Mercy Sunday as an opportunity to cultivate the practice of mercy in our homes, work places, schools, and the community at large.
