PRAYER of the WEEK

Heavenly Father, as we await the glory of the Resurrection of our Lord, grant that we do indeed listen to Your Son. Bless our efforts at self-discipline as we shut out the noise of the world and increase our time spent in prayer and meditation on the sacrifice of Jesus. May our sacrifices, small though they may be, speak of our love for You and our desire to grow closer to our Redeemer. Through our Lord, Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen.

Reflection:

Jesus Christ gave us comforting words...
"do not be afraid."

Am I willing to 'give up' my fears during this Lenten season and focus on the promise of glory that the Resurrection offers?

Fridays during Lent:

7 pm English; 7:30pm Polish

Gorzkie Zale: Sundays after the 9:30 am Mass. Let us pray together as we join Jesus on His journey to the Cross.

Prayer ~ Fast ~ Almsgiving

Today's Gospel according to Matthew...

And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became dazzling white.

Matthew 17:2, NRSV

The Transfiguration

Let us think of this Lenten season as an opportunity to grow spiritually as we pray...for the renewal of the church; fast...from fear and anxiety; give generously as an expression of our gratitude for all that God has given us. Always remember that you have been called by God. You are the recipient of the wondrous gift of faith. During Lent, reflect upon the part that faith plays in your life, and then...put it into action.

Thank you for your generous support of the Catholic Relief Services Collection and for helping Jesus in disguise. Our total for this special collection was $725. Your contributions make a difference for the poor and marginalized around the world. If you missed the collection, it's not too late! Just visit www.usccb.org/nationalcollections for more information on how to give.

Scripture reflection: Today's second reading reminds us that "God saved us and called us to a holy life." Do we acknowledge our holiness daily and seek to live a holy life through our thoughts, words, and actions? Let us pray that we grow in holiness this Lent and always thank God for His mercy.
