PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Heavenly Father, as we celebrate this solemn feast, we prepare our hearts and minds to receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Inspired by the way the apostles received the message of the Holy Spirit, we pray that we embrace that holy message so that we speak truthfully and act peacefully in all daily encounters. May we work toward understanding those who speak diverse languages by adopting a universal language of kindness and forgiveness. Through our Lord, Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

During May we are reminded to pray the Rosary.

A spiritual gift is given to each of us so we can help each other.

Saint Paul reminds us that all of our gifts have their source in the Holy Spirit and that those gifts are given for the common good. What gifts are mine to share? Do I use the gifts of the Holy Spirit to the fullest in my daily life?

Pentecost

Living My Faith... the Gifts of the Holy Spirit

The solemnity of the Pentecost affords us the opportunity to refresh our knowledge of the precious and priceless Gifts of the Holy Spirit, which we received when we were Baptized. At our Confirmation, we were sealed with these gifts, gifts that we need to lead the life that God has always had in mind for us. To fully appreciate these gifts, it is important that we understand them.

Wisdom: a gift of knowing what is good and just. Wisdom is not the same as intelligence; rather, wisdom is a gift of maturity, one that enables us to see things not through our own eyes but through those of God.

Understanding: a gift that enables us to be aware of God's working in our lives and to comprehend the Church's teachings.

Counsel: a gift of right judgment that enables us to clearly distinguish that which is right from that which is wrong and to apply that distinction to our actions and decisions.

Fortitude: a gift of courage that is built upon the gifts of wisdom and counsel. Once we know what is true and good, we have the ability to do the right thing and fight temptation.

Knowledge: a gift of knowing what God is asking of us, how He wants us to live. Rather than doing everything according to our own individual wills, we act according to the will of God.

Piety: a gift of fidelity to God. We are devoted to God and to our religion; therefore, we dutifully and happily commit to serving Him lovingly and worshipfully.

Fear of the Lord: the gift of reverence that is manifested in our overwhelming desire to please God and be close to Him always. We fear doing what displeases and offends Him. We long to show Him the utmost respect by honoring Him above all.

Our gratitude for the Gifts of the Holy Spirit is witnessed in our using them "for our own good and the good of the Church." Let this Pentecost Sunday be the day on which we recommit to doing so in a spirit of thanksgiving. Come, Holy spirit, come!

The weekly collection amounts were not available at the time of the publication of this bulletin. They will be presented at a future date. Thank you for your patience.

CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL UPDATE
as of May 18: Number of donors: 38
Amount pledged: $9685= 75% of our $12,900 goal.

As you can see, we are taking small steps toward reaching our goal and receiving a rebate. We are grateful for the thirty-eight people who have made pledges thus far and anticipate additional parishioners helping us in this endeavor.

We are most grateful to the Jarocki Family for generously donating the lovely flowers that add beauty and color to our church grounds.

Special thanks go to Bogdan Jarocki for giving of his time and talent to do the actual planting. We look forward to seeing the luscious blooms when we enter the church property. Many thanks!
