Prayer of the Week

As we approach the end of summer, we stop for prayerful reflection on the many gifts that our Creator gives us. Let us first remove our sunglasses and put on SONGlasses; by doing so, we will find the Lord everywhere!

- ♦ The strong solar rays remind me that the Lord is truly the light of the world...
- ♦ The powerful surf reminds me that God is the Creator, the Divine Master who casts a beautiful sunset as a backdrop for evening prayer...
- ♦ Vibrant red strawberries and sugary peaches remind me that God wants me to enjoy the fruits of the earth...
- ♦ The welcome breeze that touches my forehead on a hot day reminds me of the Holy Spirit and His gifts that I received when I was Confirmed... Veni, Creator Spiritus!
- ♦ The cool dark earth on which I kneel in my garden reminds me that I should also kneel to pray as our Lord did in a garden so long ago.

For these we give thanks... Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.

Scripture Reflection: In today's first reading, Joshua challenges the people to decide whom they will serve. Recalling God's faithfulness to them and to their ancestors, the people declare, "We also will serve the Lord, for He is our God." "We, too, must be mindful of God's gifts to us and renew our commitment to serve Him with grateful hearts. We pray that, as committed stewards, our faith is deepened and our lives enriched through our stewardship of time, talent, and service.

REMINDER: Men who have considered becoming a deacon in the Diocese of Rockville Centre are reminded of an invitation to attend one of the information sessions that will be given in September at the Seminary of the Immaculate Conception in Huntington.

Sincerest thanks go to Mr. & Mrs. Mankowski for sharing their lovely blooms with us. Their stunning hydrangeas have been adorning our altar throughout the summer. How beautiful the flowers! How thoughtful and generous the givers!
