Pope Francis' prayer intention for the month of July is for the elderly.

We pray for the elderly, who represent the roots and memory of a people; may their experience and wisdom help young people to look towards the future with hope and responsibility.

Prayer of the Week

Loving Father, in a world filled with ways to communicate, we sometimes fail to talk with You on a daily basis. Give us the insight to realize that it is You Who should receive our attention first thing in the morning upon rising ("Thank you, God, for the gift of this day") and at day's end (Thank you, God, for this day, throughout which I have tried to grow closer to You through the choices that I made.) Help us to better manage our time as we aim to make prayer a priority each day. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

We offer prayers of praise, of petition, of thanksgiving. We seek forgiveness; we gain peace.

Jesus is describing God's immeasurable generosity when He says in today's Gospel, "Whoever asks, receives; whoever seeks, finds; whoever knocks, is admitted."

Prayer and formation are powerful and form the path to spiritual growth. Is a Christian complete without them?

Let us pray that, as dedicated stewards, we seek to open doors and serve others who desire to encounter God's mercy.

Today we celebrate World Day of Grandparents and the Elderly as it is the closest Sunday to the Feast of Saints Joachim and Anne, the grandparents of Jesus.

Pope Francis tweeted that the elderly "should be cared for like a treasure of humanity: they are our wisdom, our memory. It is crucial that grandchildren remain close to their grandparents, who are like roots from which they draw the sap of human and spiritual values."

The theme chosen by Pope Francis for this 2022 celebration is: "In old age they will still bear fruit." (Psalm 92:15). Yes, the wisdom of those who have lived a long life is priceless. Their biographies include chapters filled with joy and sadness, successes and failures, family life experiences, societal shifts, historical events. Each experience has left a mark, either faint or distinct, an impression in the life of those who have lived many decades.

It is hoped that this year, when we have learned how to best manage life against the backdrop of Covid, we will be able to gather with the elderly persons in our life circle. Some of them have experienced isolation in the past two years. Show them that you have not forgotten them. Present them with the best gift that you can offer...your time and attention. Call them, visit them. The elderly are rich in remembrances that they are eager to share. Let them do the talking while you listen and learn. Thank God for placing these treasured people in your life.

Please pray for ...
the sick,
the vulnerable,
the homebound,
the homeless,
the persecuted,
the unborn, refugees,
victims of violence,
and all in need of prayer.
