We mourn with you

Please keep the families of Leszek Oleksiej (brother of parishioner Wieslaw

Oleksiej) and Janina Charyton (mother of parishioner Ela Jarocki) in your thoughts and prayers. Both Leszek and Janina were former faithful members of our parish family. May they rest in eternal peace with their Heavenly Father.

Lord, Hear Our Prayer

Prayer of the Week

Merciful and loving Father, grant us the strength to deal with the ever-present worldliness that can erode our spirituality. Grant that our hearts and minds are directed toward the glory that awaits us as Your faithful children. Enable us to discern what is good, true, and pleasing to You. May we increase in wisdom as we grow "rich in what matters to God." Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

The Rich Fool

Reflection:

Am I too easily caught up in the materialism of our modern world?

Today's psalm bids us to seek wisdom. The gift of wisdom enables us to differentiate between wants and needs, pleasure and true joy, material possessions and the promised riches of Heaven.

We know that wisdom is one of the Gifts of the Holy Spirit that we received at our Baptism. Is this a gift that we need to remove from the bottom drawer of our heart, unwrap, and discover its true value?

Prompted by today's readings, we might take an internal inventory of the things that we most prize in life. Perhaps the adage "You can't take it with you" will come to mind as you make your list and focus on the intangibles that make you the person you are: a child of God.

During the early, darkest days of the pandemic, we were faced with shortages of everyday items. Confronted with the unwelcome notion of 'having to do without,' we began to take stock of the things that mean most to us. Good health, friendships, and family earned a higher ranking than the things that we had acquired throughout the years of our lives. We spent longer stretches of time within the confines of our homes, our sanctuaries from the virus that frightened us.

We also became more acutely aware of our personal relationship with God during these uncertain and troubling times. Our reliance on Him deepened despite our inability to be physically present for Mass in our beloved church. We longed to receive the Eucharist.

Unfortunately, sometimes it takes a crisis or some deprivation to make us realize what we really need. At such times, we realize the importance of being "rich in the matters of God." At such times, we would be wise to ask...

Please pray for ... the sick,
the vulnerable,
the homebound,
the homeless,
the persecuted,
the unborn, refugees,
victims of violence, and all in need of prayer.

CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL UPDATE

The number of donors from our parish has remained 39 for over a month. We are almost at 75% of our goal. It seems reasonable that we could find at the very least twenty more parishioners to help us reach our goal. A rebate would be most welcome as we make significant renovations to the school building in preparation for the new tenants. Won't you please consider making a donation?
