Pope Francis' Prayer Intention for October:

A Church Open to Everyone

We pray for the Church, ever faithful to, and courageous in preaching the Gospel. May the Church be a community of solidarity, fraternity, and welcome, always living in an atmosphere of synodality.

During this month, we have prayed a decade of the Rosary after the Sunday Masses. We are all encouraged to pray the Rosary, not just during October, but throughout the year.

Prayer intercessions that you might want to add to your daily prayers this month:

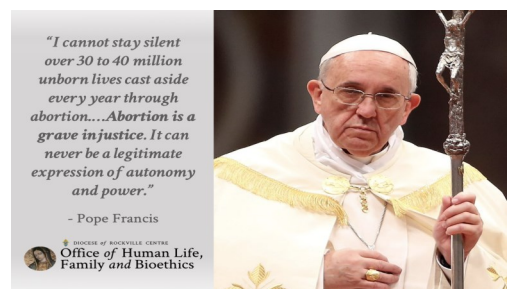

For all Catholics: May we be channels of God's mercy by loving each person and celebrating the gift of his or her life...
We pray to the Lord.

For expectant mothers whose hearts are troubled:
May they receive helpful, loving support for themselves and their babies...
We pray to the Lord

For unborn children: May they be lovingly welcomed into this world by family, friends, and the local community...
We pray to the Lord.

For those nearing the end of life: May God strengthen their faith and comfort them through others' loving support...
We pray to the Lord.

May we always celebrate the gift of life.

The Pharisee and the Tax Collector

Today's Gospel Reflection:

Today's theme is humility. The words of the Pharisee's personal prayer lead us to see him as having a superiority complex. Seeing himself as one of an elevated stature, he expresses thanks for not being like others. At times we can be tempted to compare ourselves to others and sadly, to consider ourselves superior in various ways...talents, possessions, job status, etc. When we realize that we are all dependent on God, the source of our gifts and talents, then we will grow in humility. Don't we all depend on God for his loving mercy? Clearly, the tax collector was the one who impresses us for possessing the virtue of humility.

Please pray for ...
the sick,
the vulnerable,
the homebound,
the homeless,
the persecuted,
the unborn, refugees,
victims of violence,
and all in need of prayer.

Both the first reading and today's Psalm state clearly that the Lord hears the cry of the poor. Have I been given the gifts—of time or money or abilities—to be the means by which God answers their need? Let us pray that, as faithful stewards, we use our unique God-given gifts and talents to help meet the basic needs of the poor, troubled, weak, and oppressed.
