Prayer of the Week

Almighty and ever-living God, Who created us in Your image and called us to be saints, strengthen our resolve to do what is just, what is good, what is right. Help us to grow in faith, hope, and charity so that we live as true disciples who spread Your message of love throughout the world. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.

Reflection: Do I need to remind myself that I have been called to be a saint? How many of my thoughts, words, and deeds are governed by faith, hope, and love?

During this month, we have prayed a decade of the Rosary after the Sunday Masses. We are all encouraged to pray the rosary, not just during October, but throughout the year.

We turn our clocks back one hour next Saturday evening
before retiring.

This week we celebrate two days that are very significant to our lives as Catholics. On Thursday, we celebrate a day dedicated to All Saints. In addition to commemorating the lives of the saints, the true role models of faith, we remind ourselves that we too are called to be saints. On All Souls' Day, we honor those family members and friends who are departed from us. To fully commemorate the faithful departed, we are reminded that we can offer spiritual gifts to those yet in Purgatory.

For the Souls in Purgatory – Plenary Indulgence

A plenary indulgence, applicable only to the souls in purgatory, is granted each and every day from Nov 1 to Nov 8, who devoutly visit a cemetery and there pray, if only mentally, for the departed.

All Souls' Day – Plenary Indulgence

A plenary indulgence is granted the faithful who, on All Souls' Day (or according to the judgment of the bishop, on the Sunday preceding or following it, or on the solemnity of All Saints), devoutly visits a church or an oratory and recites an Our Father and the Creed.

Requirements for obtaining a plenary indulgence:

- Do the work while in a state of grace,
- Receive Sacramental confession within 20 days of the work (several plenary indulgences may be earned per reception),
- Receive Eucharistic communion (one plenary indulgence may be earned per reception),
- Pray for the pope's intentions (Our Father and Hail Mary, or other appropriate prayer, is sufficient),
- Have no attachment to sin (even venial) – i.e., it is sufficient that the Christian makes an act of the will to love God and despise sin.
- Requirements for a partial indulgence: The work must be done while in a state of grace and with the general intention of earning an indulgence.

We pray for the following:

Mary Abruzzo, Margaret Puorro, Anthony Andree, Michele Ande, Charlotte Dobkowski, Joan D., Helena Stawrowski, Baby Audrey, Dorothy Braun, Celina Oleksiej, Anne Dornford, Dorothy Harper

May our Merciful Lord grant them healing.

Pray for...the elderly, the homebound, the lonely, the unborn, and all who need our prayers

Reflection: Both the first reading and today's Psalm say clearly that the Lord hears the cry of the poor. Have I been given the gifts—of time or money or abilities—to be the means by which God answers their need? Let us pray that, as faithful stewards, we use our unique God-given gifts and talents to help meet the basic needs of the poor, troubled, weak, and oppressed.

Sacrificial offering
October 20: Total: $2820
Thank you for your continued generosity.

So often we use the phrase "faithful steward" to describe someone who consistently offers time and talent to serve others. Within our parish family, we have such a steward... Wiesław (Wesley) Oleksiej. For many years, Wesley has been a dedicated volunteer at St. Ladislaus Church. With a smile and cheerful manner, he immediately senses when help is warranted and asks, "What do you need me to do?" His quiet efficiency and humility have long been appreciated by our priests. Much of his heart belongs to Saint Ladislaus Church. Today Wesley will receive the Saint Agnes Medal of Service to be awarded by the Diocese. Gratulujemy Wiesławie!!!

The rectory office will be closed this coming Wednesday, October 30. It will reopen on Thursday, October 31.
