Pope Francis's prayer intention for October~ For the Synod:
We pray for the Church, that she may adopt listening and dialogue as a lifestyle at every level, and allow herself to be guided by the Holy Spirit towards the peripheries of the world.

*October is dedicated to the holy Rosary. During this month, we pray a decade of the Rosary after Sunday Masses. How wonderful it would be if everyone made time each day to pray even one decade of the rosary!

I can do
ALL THINGS
through Christ
who strengthens me.
PHILIPPIANS 4:13

In today's second reading, Saint Paul thanks the Philippians for their willingness to share in his hardships. He promises that God, in turn, will fully supply all their needs. Our God truly cannot be outdone in generosity! This reading reminds us that as generous stewards who give of ourselves, we become the means by which God can answer every need. Next weekend we have an opportunity to act as generous stewards as we acknowledge World Mission Sunday. Know that our contributions can transform lives. As we approach Thanksgiving, we can provide a reason for others to be thankful by offering a donation that can help the impoverished receive basic needs. Your money supports mission dioceses around the world where priests, religious, and lay people serve the most vulnerable communities. If you do not receive envelopes in the mail, you will find some World Mission Sunday envelopes in the bulletin racks.

During Respect Life Month, you might want to add these intercessions to your daily prayers.

For expectant mothers whose hearts are troubled: May they receive helpful, loving support for themselves and their babies...We pray to the Lord.

For those nearing the end of life: May God strengthen their faith and give them comfort and hope through the gentle compassion of their caregivers. We pray to the Lord.

For men and women suffering after abortion: May the Church's post-abortion healing ministry help them find peace through god's limitless mercy...We pray to the Lord.

Today's second reading

Today is Laity Sunday, a day to celebrate the ministry of the lay people in the Church. On this day, we can pause and think of the many ministries open to lay people inside and outside the church building, reminding us that we are called to be active Christians. St. John Paul II wrote "Thus for the Lay faithful, to be present and active in the world, is not only an anthropological and sociological reality, but in a specific way, a theological and ecclesiological reality as well."

"If people spent an hour a week in Eucharistic adoration, abortion would be ended."
