Prayer of the Week

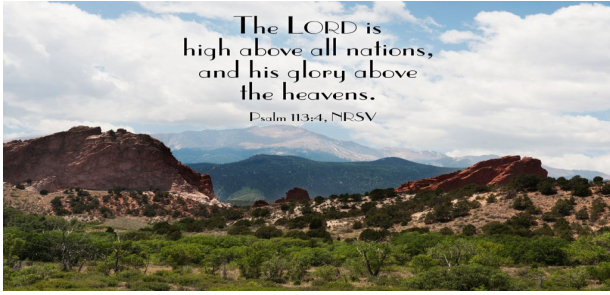

Heavenly Father, grant me the wisdom to reflect on my use/misuse of money and the part that material riches play in my life. Help me to distinguish my wants from my needs and, in so doing, commit to helping those whose basic needs are not being met. Create in me a clean heart that is generous, a heart that recognizes the dignity of the poor and aims to ease their suffering. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.

“YOU CANNOT SERVE
GOD AND MONEY.”
LUKE 16:13. ESV

Reflection question: As an adult Catholic, do I try to teach the young people in my life not to rely on material goods and the accumulation of wealth as the source of happiness and peace?

Regis High School

Regis, an all-scholarship Jesuit secondary school for talented and gifted Catholic boys, announces its Open House for students and their parents, to occur on Columbus Day, Monday, October 14th, from 1:00-4:00PM. For additional information, please write, e-mail, or call Eric DiMichele, Director of Admissions. Regis High School is located at 55 East 84th Street, Manhattan. (212) 288-1100, Ext. 2057.

We pray for the following:

Mary Abruzzo, Margaret Puorro, Anthony Andree, Michele Ande, Charlotte Dobkowski, Joan D., Helena Stawrowski, Baby Audrey, Dorothy Braun, Celina Oleksiej, Anne Dornford, Dorothy Harper

May our Merciful Lord grant them healing.

Reflection: The dishonest manager in today's parable knew how to manipulate money to his own advantage; however, the Gospel warns that no one can serve both God and money. Which do I serve?

Let us pray that we seek to "possess lightly," knowing that Jesus taught about the dangers of clinging to material possessions. May we become fully aware of the real treasures available to us as we embrace the belief that no one is ever poorer for gratefully giving to serve others.

Sacrificial Offering
September 15: Total: $2499

St. Pius X Enriched Living Facility: The Catholic Church of Long Island is blessed and privileged to be able to care for our senior priests. Our donations help these dedicated men to live in a facility that meets their extra care needs while enabling them to serve as fully engaged members of the community. Please give what you can.
