Pope Francis' Prayer Intention:

February: For the terminally ill: Let us pray that the sick who are in the final stages of life receive the necessary medical and human care and accompaniment.

Dear Lord, in the midst of winter, I seek the light that shines through bare branches and warms me with its glow. Lead me, Lord, light of the world, so that the winter of my soul may be thawed and open to

Your love and mercy. Grant me a clear perspective so that I may recognize those going through a dark time in their lives...those who might benefit from my own light of compassion. Grant me the wisdom to use the gifts that You have given me to serve others. Through our Lord, Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit one God for ever and ever. Amen.

Reflection: Do I do my best to bring hope to those with whom I live, work, or study? Do I smile and perform deeds of kindness?

In ten days, we will begin our journey through the holiest of seasons.....

Rest in peace,
our dear
Father Piotr

The Saints...Seekers of Holiness

This week we celebrate two saints, Saint Jerome Emiliani and Saint Josephine Bakhita. These holy people lived worlds and centuries apart, yet each shared the unfortunate chains of imprisonment.

Jerome was a prisoner of war who became aware that his real dungeon was the spiritual void in which he had lived. His true freedom came when he realized that he needed God. Jerome used his ultimate freedom to help the poor, especially orphans.

Josephine Bakhita was a Sudanese woman who was kidnapped as a child and sold into the brutal world of slavery. She endured years of physical suffering as well as deprivation of any kindness. Years later Josephine was put in the care of an order of nuns in Italy, and from that time on, she knew and spread true joy.

Both of these brave souls were able to free themselves from their cruel environs and find solace in the world of peace offered by our heavenly Father. Both were able to shed the chains of personal suffering and commit themselves to serving others.

Both knew the love that endures all things.
