Heavenly Father, we Your children desire to be good disciples as were the fishermen who promptly dropped their nets and followed You. May we, as students and disciples of Your Word, seek always to make Your ways our own. Bless our efforts to walk in the paths You have wisely charted for us. Grant us the strength to abandon the bad habits that can cause us to veer from the road to salvation. Through our Lord, Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen. Reflection question: How carefully do I follow the path that the Lord has set our for me?

Gospel READING

There is a certain urgency in today's Gospel as Jesus calls His first disciples: Andrew and Simon, James, and John. Each one follows Jesus immediately, unhesitatingly abandoning father and fellow-workers, nets, and boat. To what is Jesus calling me at this moment, in these circumstances? What will I need to abandon in order to follow Him? As steward disciples, we ought to strive to hear what Jesus is calling us to at this moment in our lives.
