Prayer ...and almsgiving

Lent offers children a wonderful opportunity to learn about almsgiving. If you set up a Lenten space as suggested last week, think of adding a small bowl to the table. Adults can empty their loose change at the end of each day. Children can add a portion of their allowances or give up the money that would have gone toward a treat. When the bowl is full, have the children accompany you to the grocery store and select items to donate to a local food pantry. What a wonderful way to introduce sacrifice and charity to young stewards of the faith!

SECOND SUNDAY
in Lent

Especially during Lent, we are minded that we are One Family in Mission and thus are 'Called to Evangelize.' For many of us, we publicly display our belief that our faith is a gift from God. Some of us may wear a cross or religious medal around our necks; others may give witness when receiving ashes on their foreheads on Ash Wednesday. These are great things to do because they serve to open the door of faith to those around us; we are witnesses! As witnesses, do we have unwavering faith? When times get tough, do we put our faith in God as Abraham did? When finances, work, or school loom over us, do we give in to fear and anxiety? Rather, do we, like Abraham, place our trust in a living God?

No one ever said that life would be easy; in fact, most have said the opposite. Jesus, however, offers us hope. He tells us to come to Him and to take His yoke upon ourselves.

Today we also celebrate the feast of Saint Patrick, a man who, despite living in a hostile and dangerous environment, accepted suffering and success with equal measure. By placing his faith in God, Patrick was able to live out his missionary call to evangelize Ireland. In so doing, he exemplified his formation as a disciple. As God guides us through life's problems, allow God to form you, as He formed Patrick, into His disciple. He will if you let Him.

Saint Patrick's Breastplate:

Christ be with me, Christ within me
 Christ behind me, Christ before me
 Christ beside me, Christ to win me
 Christ to comfort me and restore me.
 Christ beneath me, Christ above me
 Christ in quiet, Christ in danger
 Christ in hearts of all that love me
 Christ in mouth of friend or stranger.

The Polish American Museum will host a special celebration of the 100 years of the restoration of Polish independence on Saturday, March 23 at 3PM. The theme is "North American Polonia and Polish Independence," the story of Poles crossing the Atlantic in pursuit of liberty in North America. Guest speakers will include Jan Lorys, historian; Gerald Kochan, director of the Center for Military Studies and, and Boguslaw Winid, former Ambassador to the UN. 16 Belleview Ave., Port Washington; 516-883-6542

Reflection: This week's Gospel is about formation. God is forming us to be His disciples. Do not be afraid! Listen to His call, and trust in His will.

In this week's reading, we learn from Abraham that we can—and should—trust in God. Saint Paul mentions Abraham's faith because it is a model for us as Christians, especially in these challenging times. Help us, Lord, to fight our anxieties and to place our trust in You.
