Prayer of the Week

Heavenly Father, Almighty ever-living God, open our hearts and minds so that we call upon our spiritual gifts in our everyday lives. You love us with a perfect love, and we ask that, with the help of the Holy Spirit, we can find strength to love others selflessly. Open our eyes to see Your face in that of our brothers and sisters. As we rely upon our Your boundless mercy to forgive our sins, enable us to forgive others freely. Through our Lord, Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever. Amen.

The Saints....Seekers of Holiness

This week we celebrate one of the most well-known saints of the Catholic Church: Saint Thomas Aquinas, the noted philosopher and theologian who lived in the medieval period (13th century). Saint Thomas Aquinas was a preeminent teacher of the Catholic Church and therefore earned the title of 'Doctor of the Church.' He is known for his writings, particularly for his magnum opus, the Summa Theologica. He believed in divine revelation but also recognized reason as one of God's great gifts.; he was able to see a harmony between reason and faith. Saint Thomas Aquinas was a champion of learning and understanding. It is no wonder that Saint Thomas Aquinas is the patron saint of students and of all schools and universities.

Today's Psalm:

There is still an opportunity to plan a perfect winter visit to the Christmas exhibit, "Christmas in Poland," currently shown at the Knights of Columbus Museum in New Haven, Connecticut. The show features more than 100 items, some from the museum's own collection. Highlights include: Szopki from Krakow, hand-carved wooden crèches, and traditional Polish clothing. The museum, which is located at 1 State Street in New Haven, is open daily from 10AM to 5PM. Admission and parking are free. For more information, call (203) 865-0400 or visit: kofcmuseum.org

May our Merciful Lord grant them healing.

Remember to pray for and tend to those for whom the challenges of winter present a real concern. During frigid or snowy weather, we may be the lifeline to the ill or elderly. Our stewardship is needed!

Reflection: The US Bishops' pastoral on stewardship reinforces today's reading from 1 Corinthians: "Because its individual members do collectively make up the Body of Christ, that body's health and well-being are the responsibility of the members-the personal responsibility of each of us. We are all stewards of the Church."

Living Stewardship: We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish who welcome a new family in town with a food gift, thereby actively celebrating a corporal work of mercy as they provide welcome to a stranger.

Let us pray that as responsible stewards, we embrace the call of the Gospel without fear or hesitation.
