Prayer of the Week

Heavenly Father, as we celebrate the Baptism of Jesus, help us to recall our own membership in the Church, our life in Christ, as we work to build a world worthy of Your kingdom. May we, as Your children, act as fitting recipients of the grace that we received upon our Baptism, so that we become and remain a people with whom You are "well pleased." Through our Lord, Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever. Amen.

Reflection: How will I prepare a way for the Lord in the coming year? As I reflect on my life, do I consider that there might be a need for me to clear my pathway of any clutter that might prevent me from getting closer to the Lord? Perhaps this will be the year that I let go of useless anxiety and temporal concerns and allow the Lord to guide me.

May our Merciful Lord grant them healing.

How readily we humans respond to the word “comfort.” In truth, we seek comfort in most aspects of our lives. Nowadays we frequently hear people talk of creating a personal “comfort zone,” which translates as a place, situation, or emotional space where one feels most productive, most peaceful, even happiest. In aspiring to find comfort at home, in the workplace, at school, or in a social setting, we are often disappointed. We encounter factors outside of our control that cannot be managed. We experience events that we cannot handle. We meet others to whom we don’t easily relate. Our human abilities come up short. For this reason, we would be wise to turn to these simple yet beautiful words: “Comfort my people, says your God.” Our faith in God is the one true reliable source of comfort. So many people who have lost a loved one admit that their faith was the one thing on which they relied the most throughout their grieving, the one thing that saw them through. We can and should pray for comfort. We can receive comfort in our reception of the sacraments. Just think of the last time that you received the sacrament of Penance. Didn’t you feel better upon leaving the confessional than carrying around the burden of guilt? Our true comfort zone is the one in which our Lord, the “light of the world” is present. Let us invite Him in.

Reflection: Jesus, whom God called “my beloved Son,” is also the “servant” of whom Isaiah speaks in the first reading. We who are baptized in Christ must follow His example and use our time and resources in the service of God and neighbor.

Living Stewardship: We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish who answer their baptismal call to believe with joy by placing their gifts and resources, their very selves, at God’s service, not only in the Church, but in the world. Let us pray that as obedient stewards, we listen to what the Lord says as we prepare our hearts to be His dwelling place.

SACRIFICIAL OFFERING

January 6 : First Collection: $2035;
Second: $447; Total=$2482

2019 March for Life

We are all God’s children, made in His image and likeness, and wherever life is threatened—violence, poverty, hunger, discrimination, abortion—God’s people defend it. Please pray for those participating in the March for Life: That their gentle, prayerful presence underscores their message that all life is sacr EVERY LIFE: CHERISHED...CHOSEN...SENT
